

Wada Bento Had Two Patents in Bento Vending Machines and Package Design Granted

30 March 2020

Kamakura Foods Limited (Brand Name: Wada Bento) is pleased to announce that Wada Bento has been granted two patents by National Intellectual Property Administration, PRC.

The two patents are in the areas of bento vending machines and bento package design, respectively. Wada Bento believes that the two patents will enhance Wada Bento's leadership in the area of hot-chain food technology. Wada Bento R&D team will continue to develop faster and smarter bento vending machine solutions to provide quick and delicious bentos to our customers.
